

Compliance of national curfew

Adherence to the specified curfew times in your area is absolutely imperative. Employees must comply with all government directions related to the curfew. Compliance includes being subject to any government-issued regulations for any violations.

Authorization and necessary documentation provided by the Company are only for traveling between home and work within the region during curfew hours and not for any personal use, under any circumstances.

Please see questions #24-30 of the FAQs regarding the curfew, or visit our Resource Page for curfew related support numbers.
